Thanks Martin.

As we move forward with updates like this one (and As the plume moves into the Navajo nation), we need to structure the update with more info for Navajo. Also if la plata county commented on the current update, we need to consider ways to ensure consistent coordination with entities like Navajo and New Mexico I imagine. Should we establish a "virtual" JIC with cross agency participation? Let's discuss tomorrow morning.

Subject: Latest Statement--Gold King Mine Incident

All. This statement is ready for Congressional contacts now--Region 6 and Region 8 have that covered. It contains the information from this afternoon's briefing. It can issue to media and other contacts later tonight. We'll be ready to answer questions first thing in the morning.
